MEMBERSHIP FORM

Kenya Network for Trade and Export Services -(KENTES) is a non profit membership organization and an initiative designed for Kenyan companies to help them develop trade and grow their export markets. The objectives of the export development programme is to support market expansion and export readiness program are to encourage key exporters, in agriculture, agri-food and agro food industries and many other sectors to expand their current established market share and foster economic growth through: accessing new and emerging markets, building capacity to develop markets and expanding existing markets

We provide appropriate market promotion activities such as participation in international trade fairs, exhibitions, country exhibitions, inward buying missions, outward promotion missions, contact promotion programs, roadshows, and promotion efforts to promote Kenya trade and services around the world. We provide inputs for international trade agreements and identify existing trade channels in markets and select appropriate methods for export promotion.

Our company wants to join the KENTES Export Development Programme and the many benefits of its membership. We believe that we meet to the only admission requirement which is to have a keen interest for exporting products.
